OVERVIEW

John Travis focuses his practice on all aspects of defense litigation with a particular concentration on the healthcare industry. His broad experience extends from medical malpractice to transportation and coverage litigation. He has defended cases from the early investigation phase all the way through jury trial.

John believes that cooperation between adverse parties leads to the best results and approaches matters with a view toward amicability. With that said, his client's interests always come first and John adapts his approach to meet the needs of each situation.
